

Volunteer Position at Sandycamps

Volunteers are key members in the team involved in many activities at the camp. They help to create a happy and fun atmosphere and keep the camp clean and welcoming. They also improve the quality of the facility through manual work, help serving meals and bring new ideas and skills. As a volunteer you get to experience both sides of the life in a surf camp. You'll spend half your day working at the camp with a friendly international team, discovering more about tourism, Morocco, running a camp. On the other half of the day you'll get to enjoy the amazing waves of Imsouane, relax by the pool or join yoga lessons.

Duties include but are not limited to:

- Maintenance and up-keep of the camp (most needed and priority task)
- Gardening
- Set up, help serving and clear breakfast or lunch or dinner
- Participate in all mandatory staff meetings and collective activities
- Perform other job-related duties as assigned

We also welcome applications for the position of

- Receptionist
- Surf Instructor (valid ISA or ASI certification and 3 months experience required)
